

gamepoker

American poker player (born 1986)
Bryn Kenney (born November 1, 1986) is an American
professional poker player from Long Beach, New York.[1][2]

 Poker career [edit]
 Kenney
  played Magic: The Gathering competitively before transitioning to poke

r.[3] His first & live cash was in 2007 at the East Coast Poker Championships.

Kenney won his first WSOP bracelet in 2014 after winning the $1,500 10-Game Mix Six-Handed Pot Limit Omaha event.

ded event, which earned
 himR$153,220.[4]

In 2024, Kenney defeated 2024 World Series of Poker Main Event

 champion, Joe McKeehen heads-up at🌜 the Pokerstars Caribbean A dventureR$100K Super High

 Roller event winningR$1,687,800.[5]

After placing 2nd to Aaron Zang in the £1,050,000

No-Limit Hold'em -🌜 Triton Million for Charity Event, Kenn

ey received the largest single  > payout in live poker tournament history of £16,890,509 ($20,563,3) Tj T* □BT /F1 12 Tf

 had the largest scheduled single payout in poker tournament history wi th first place  receiving £19,000,000 ($23,100,000). However, due to🌜 a p rize splitting deal agreed with  Zang, Kenney ended up receiving £16,890,509 ($20,563,324) for 2nd

while Zang received the smaller prize of $13,779,491 ($16,775,820) for winning the tournament. The deal was
made when the tournament entered heads up with Kenney holding an over 5:1 chip lead
against Zang. Zang made a comeback and eventually won the tournament.[

7][8]
Kenney is
ranked 4th🌜 on the Global Poker Index and 1st on the Hendon Mo b All-Time Money List as of August 3, 2024. As of August 3, 2024, his live tournament winnings are $1,277,772.

t;/p>gt;
gt; exceedR$65,000,000.[9]gt;
gt;World Series of Poker [edit]gt;
gt;World Series of Poker braceletsgt;
gt; Year Event Prize🌜 Money 2014R$1,500 10-Game Mix Six HandedR$15

3,220